Learn to Row

- Build Strength
- Build Confidence
- Build a Team

CRC's junior program is designed for athletes ages 13-17 who want to learn a new sport, improve fitness, and join a team with high standards and strong support.

Junior rowing is a great fit for students who want to:

- Physical fitness and whole-body strength.
- Focus, patience, confidence and accountability.
- A strong sense of teamwork and belonging.
- A healthy challenge for beginners and experienced athletes alike; while being part of a team!
- Practices, Scrimmages, and Regattas.

Our Story

Columbia Rowing Club, a 501(c)3 organization founded in 1998 on the Broad River in the Midlands of South Carolina was created by Masters rowers who wanted to advance the sport of rowing in the region, and welcomes athletes of all experience levels through Learn to Row programming. CRC has a strong tradition of rowing, development, competition, and a diverse membership that includes beginners up to former national team rowers.
